Supplemental Health Insurance:
How it works with Major Medical Coverage

archaccidenthealth.com

What is Supplemental Health Insurance?

Arch’s supplemental health insurance may include a combination of Accident Medical Expense Reimbursement, Critical Illness, and Accident & Sickness Hospital Cash. These benefits are available in different combinations under different plans/packages, allowing you to configure the right benefit mix and price point for your prospective clients.

How does Supplemental Health work with Major Medical?

Our supplemental health plans work in conjunction with any ACA-compliant major medical plan, whether it’s a PPO, HMO, HDHP, POS, or Conventional health plan. We created a few sample scenarios below to show how using these plans alongside a high-deductible plan may result in potential cost-savings for your clients.

Scenario #1: Policyholder + Spouse (No Children)

This couple resides in Arizona and both are 35 years old.
